COMPLAINTS CONCERNING INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

Request for Reconsideration of Instructional/Library Materials

The Governing Board of Manteca Unified School District has delegated the responsibility for selection and evaluation of instructional/library materials to the curriculum committee/library media teacher and has established reconsideration procedures to address concerns about those resources. Completion of this form is the first step in those procedures. Any material being reconsidered must be read or viewed in its entirety before filling out the form. If you wish to request reconsideration of school or library materials, please return the completed form to the principal.
